

SHEILA BEELER

February 2, 1948 - November 1, 2025

Sheila Beeler, a cherished pillar of her community and a beacon of love and passion, passed away peacefully of old age on November 1, 2025, at Ridgecrest Manor in Duffield. Born on February 2, 1948, in Richmond, Virginia, Sheila's life was a testament to her intelligence, loving nature, and passionate spirit.

Sheila graduated from Richmond High School, where she was known for her sharp wit and kind heart. Throughout her life, Sheila held several managerial positions in various retail establishments and restaurants, where she was respected for her leadership skills and her ability to inspire those around her. Her colleagues remember her as a mentor who led by example and always had a warm smile for both staff and customers alike.

A devout Christian, Sheila's faith was a guiding light in her life and provided her with comfort and strength. Her belief was reflected in the way she lived, always extending a helping hand and a listening ear to anyone in need. Her generous spirit and unwavering support left a lasting impact on her community and all who knew her.

Family was the cornerstone of Sheila's life. She was preceded in death by her parents, Jim and Mary Lima, her brother Sonny Vaughan, and her beloved husband Herman Beeler. Sheila's memory will be forever cherished by her loving son Herman Beeler Jr. (Rebecca), brother Richard Vaughan, her dear sister Tina Watts (Harry), niece Lola Anne Byers, nephews Chris and Paul Byers, as well as other close relatives and friends who were blessed to know her.

Sheila's intelligence shone through in every conversation, her loving nature was felt in each embrace, and her passion for life was evident in her every action. She approached every challenge with grace and every joy with gratitude.

As we bid farewell to Sheila Beeler, we celebrate a life lived to the fullest, marked by an unwavering commitment to her family, her faith, and her community. Her legacy of love and kindness is an inspiration to us all, and her memory will continue to be a source of comfort and strength. Though she will be deeply missed, Sheila's spirit will live on in the hearts of those she touched. We take solace in knowing that her journey was a beautiful one, filled with laughter, love, and an abundance of cherished moments.
