

Shelley Christine McAfee

September 25, 1969 - July 2, 2016

Big Stone Gap, VA

Shelley Christine McAfee, 46, formally of Ovalo, Texas and a member of Ovalo Baptist Church passed away after a prolonged illness with Huntington's Disease on July 2, 2016 in Big Stone Gap, VA.

Shelley was born in Nashville, Tennessee on September 25, 1969. She spent her early years as a farm girl in Soddy Daisy, Tennessee and attended New Salem Baptist Church.

In 1987, Shelley moved to Ovalo, Texas with her family and graduated from Cooper High School and also attended Hardin-Simmons University.

Shelley is preceded in death by one brother, John McAfee. She is survived by a son Joshua Hall of Athens, GA, formally from Buffalo Gap, Texas; parents Joseph and Deena McAfee of Bland, VA; brother, James McAfee of Wakefield, KS; sister-in-law, Susan McAfee of Pawleys Island, SC; grandparents Charles and Elaine McAfee of Chattanooga, TN and Louise Yates of Gastonia, NC.

Shelley also leaves behind an extended family of caregivers at Heritage Hall in Big Stone Gap, VA, who were devoted to her and provided loving care for her until the end of life.

Prior to her illness, Shelley was an outdoor enthusiast with a love for animals especially horses and birds. She was a licensed Ferrier and Ferrier teacher. Even as her illness progressed, she spent some of her last years with horses and hiking in the mountains of southwestern Virginia.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Birchleaf Center, 3103 Frying Pan Road, Birchleaf, VA 24220 or Huntington's Disease Society of America, www.hdsa.org.
