“ Mom I'm so lost right now please help me find my way . I love u more than you'll ever know. And I'm sober because our last talk was a very important one and I promised I wudnt. So just for you I miss you so much And memories I have many and hold dear to my heart. But the one that sticks out right now was the day I ran your eagle in the ditch on the four lane I must have been like 8 to 10 yrs old and I sat on your lap and drove. It scared is both to death but we were okay. Lol lord I do remember like it was yesterday. So maybe you and mama's and pawpaw and Charlie nd pan can shine a light for me. Your pennies I'll keep seen because u told me that's how I'd k is ur with me love always Nick

“ My big sister was my best friend, when we were together we had a blast! She could get on my husbands nerves like no other. When she loved u she loved completely,she would do anything to help somebody she cared for. She could put a smile on my face no matter how down I was. We stood beside each other through through just about everything, I love u my sissy! The hole in my heart will never recover,but I know God had bigger and better plans for you. Your not hurting and sick anymore, I'm thankful for that you suffer more than you should have. You rest my sister we will see each other again and then we will celebrate again. I I've You!!!

“ Cheryl was a dear and precious friend who loved everyone and was always willing to help anyone in need may God give her family peace and comfort during and after these sad times may they all know Cheryl is in heaven living a life free of pains and worries with our savior Jesus now I ask them to remember the good times and not dwell on her passing for she is where we all want to go someday when God calls us home
