“ Frankie touched so many lives with his wonderful, infectious smile and sense of humor, his loyal friendship, and his love of life. He was such a good father to Andrew, and such a good friend to so many over the years. He touched many lives and will always be remembered with love in our family. We are praying for peace for his wife, Kim; his son, Andrew, and his sisters, Em and Bertie.

“ Frank and I were not only first cousins, but good friends especially in our adult lives. Never forget a couple of years ago he and Kim came for a visit and when we returned from a visit in town, I forgot to turn off my alarm. We were sitting in the living room and here come the police. It was funny, I had to show ID and proof I lived here. At least the alarm works. Rest in peace Frank, I will visit your Dad's grave this week, as I do often. All my siblings and myself send their condolences to Kim, Andy, Sisters and Friends.

“ Frank and Kim had a lot of fun with me and Penny on motorcycle trips. I remember a lot of early mornings with Frank, Andy and Landry at the field house during football and wrestling. Frank and I mostly watched with no workouts on our part. I will certainly miss the way he could always make you laugh and will never forget him. Our entire family extends condolences to you all.
