“ Was Susie my shortstop back when I was 20 years old which would be around 52 years ago. That would have been up in Valley Forge with first investment annuity company. She was a spark plug on the team. 610-420-1485 Scott Harrity

“ I'm so glad I got the chance to know you & love you. I could not have asked for a better "Bonus Mom" for Tyler. You were always so good to him, & to me. And I can't tell you how much that means. You will be missed by so many. Johnny now has a Guardian Angel watching over him. I know you have found the love & peace that you deserve in the arms of Our Lord & Savior. Rest easy, Sweet Lady.

“ I remember the day I met you in kindergarten. You were tiny and shy, no bigger than a minute! Our friendship started that day and just continued to grow! Even though you were such a little gal, you took up big space in the hearts of others! You will be so missed, Susie! My thoughts and prayers are with your Dad and your boys. I love you and will miss you so much!
