“ Dear Billy, Mrs. Chandler and family -- He was such a wonderful man, always very kind and patient when this newspaper lady was asking for his help at a fire scene. There is little that can be said to ease your grief, but it helps to know that he touched so many lives, and will always be remembered by the many folks he helped in times of trouble, and those he taught about firefighting, and how a good man works, lives and volunteers to help others.
