“ Thomas, or uncle Tom as I have always called him has always had a special place in my heart. He was a kind, quiet, gentle soul. He never, in all the memories I have of him, had any bad things to say about anyone. My fondest memories of him will always be sitting on the porch swing with him at my Papaw Grubbs house and have short little talks. I'll never forget the smell of his cologne when I would hug him goodbye. He really did give me the best hugs. I'm comforted knowing that he will once again be reunited with my sweet mommy, Jean, my sweet aunts, Lucy and Barbra along with Papaw and Mamaw Grubb. Uncle Tom was so loved and he will be very missed by all of us left behind.
