“ I met Tonya when my sister Donna and her brother Marvin dated in high school some years ago. She was always so sweet and fun to be around. Unfortunately for a while we lost touch as some do. We ran into one another at a grocery store after both having families and it was so wonderful to catch up with one another.

I am so sorry to hear of her passing and I pray for peace and comfort today and in the days ahead for her children, grandchildren, husband, parents and siblings. 💜
