“ robin was my best best friend. she was such a blessing to be around. she was so kind and sweet to me. if i needed a friend to talk to she was the one you could depend on. she will deeply be missed. but i know she is in a better place with no worries or suffering. hugs to my friend that has gone on and hope one day to see you again. love you my friend to you from barbara tomlinson. she was one that never asked for anything even if she did need something. but she sure would help others always if she could. just cant express how much she meant to me. i will miss our talks and laughters together and our cries. but she always was there when i needed someone to talk to. miss you my friend.
