“ Dear Jim, Billy and Brenda,

My sister, Anna Breeding, just called me today to tell me of Wanda Rose's passing. Wanda is one of the sweetest people I have ever known and I'm sorry that all of you have lost her so soon.

I remember you cousins coming up from Coeburn to see us on Sundays. And, I remember the summer vacations I spent with you all in Coeburn. We had the best times – sometimes laughing until we cried. Have you ever tried to laugh at 1 AM, so low that your parents would not hear you?

I was thinking about Wanda a couple of weeks ago. I thought of the summer I came down and you all had the “playhouse” in an old shed. I remembered the smell of it. I believe she sent me that thought to let me know she had gone on to heaven.

So many things I remember, from Barbie dolls to trying to get into the movies on a child's (under 12 yrs. old) ticket, when we were over 12. Just crazy things kids do. Aunt Inez was such a good cook and we usually had to do the dishes after supper. But, we had a good time doing them.

I'll pray you all love and understanding as you miss her.

*Love,
Trish Breeding Fisher*
