“ I have so many fond memories of Bill, especially when we were involved in the Trail of the Lonesome Pine. A kind person, always willing to help, and just a joy to be around. I'll remember his wonderful laugh. Light and peace, Bill.

“ Bill was a great friend for many years! From the Friday night gatherings at our favorite watering hole, the numerous adventures on Boone Lake, and the trips to Key West and Las Vegas, Bill always made everyone feel warm and welcomed. Any time you needed help, he was always there. We have lost a true friend, and he will be greatly missed.
