“ I don't know where to start. They say a boys first love is his mother. True! I learn from you what loving unconditional is. Always your baby boy. What hurts the most is this baby girl of mine you bugged me so much about having, will no longer get these video calls. Well the memories she made with you last her forever? Watching the two of you together brought me so much joy. Momma you've been my Rock, my protector, my provider. My everything. I can't and will not say goodbye to you, because you will always be with me in some way, shape of form. Until we meet again my Angel. I love you momma.
